

SECURITY & RIGHTS COLLABORATIVE

a proteus fund initiative

2012 Grants

Total: $1,099,000

Field/Capacity Building Grants

Arab American Association of New York $20,000	To support Arab American Association of New York's NYPD Accountability and Oversight Campaign, which will mobilize the Arab American community and promote increased civic engagement.
The Arab American Institute Foundation $40,000	To support the Arab American Institute Foundation's Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Program to educate and mobilize Arab Americans and to advocate on behalf of Arab American communities on racial profiling and discrimination issues.
Arab Community Center for Economic and Social Services $70,000	To support Arab Community Center for Economic and Social Services' (ACCESS) National Network for Arab American Communities' racial profiling advocacy, civic engagement efforts and communications capacity.
Asian Law Caucus $70,000	To support Asian Law Caucus' National Security and Civil Rights Project's local coalition efforts in advocating against law enforcement profiling, and to provide legal services to Muslim, Arab and South Asian communities throughout Northern California.
Bill of Rights Defense Committee $20,000	To support Bill of Rights Defense Committee to strengthen local grassroots organizing efforts to advance national security policy reforms.
Brennan Center for Justice $20,000	To support the Brennan Center for Justice's collaborative efforts to advance a reform and oversight agenda to address the New York City Police Department's abusive intelligence operations targeting Muslim, Arab and South Asian communities; to support the development of empirical evidence on religious profiling; and to litigate and raise public awareness on the anti-mosque movement.
Center for Intercultural Organizing $20,000	To support Center for Intercultural Organizing's leadership development and capacity building programs and its local, state and national advocacy on issues of human rights and civil liberties.

Field/Capacity Building Grants cont'd

DRUM – Desis Rising Up & Moving $60,000	To support DRUM's End Racial Profiling Campaign.
Institute for Social Policy and Understanding $50,000	To support Institute for Social Policy and Understanding's research and dissemination of a report that goes beyond the post-9/11 framework to examine the connections between Islamophobia and other efforts to limit the power of religious and ethnic minorities in the U.S.
Rockwood Leadership Program $75,000	To support Rockwood Leadership Program to host a cross-cohort convening of 2010-2011 Human Rights and National Security Reform Fellows, to reinforce leadership practices, build collaborative relationships and to provide a space for participants to identify "next steps" in achieving the field's collective goals.
Sikh Coalition $70,000	To support Sikh Coalition's second Sikh Advocates Academy and advance its civic engagement efforts in order to mobilize the Sikh American community.
South Asian Americans Leading Together $70,000	To support South Asian Americans Leading Together's operations, including their collaborative work among affected constituencies and with allies in the field in order to more effectively address profiling, discrimination and surveillance.
South Asian Network $20,000	To support South Asian Network's Southern California-based efforts to challenge racial profiling and surveillance by law enforcement.
Tennessee Immigrant and Refugee Rights Coalition $25,000	To support Tennessee Immigrant and Refugee Rights Coalition's multi-ethnic grassroots efforts to challenge racial and religious profiling, to build the leadership and civic engagement of Tennessee's Muslim leaders, and to conduct public education and media efforts aimed at shifting the prevailing national security frame.
University of Southern California $35,000	To support the University of Southern California's American Muslim Civic Leadership Institute's 2012-2013 retreat program to educate a fifth cohort of 22 Muslim organizational leaders on national security and human rights issues, and to hold the first convening of all 108 AMCLI alumni for cross-cohort discussions.

Communications Grants

ReThink Media
$400,000

To support ReThink Media's provision of a centralized set of tools, resources and services (including campaign support) to national security and human rights organizations with the goals of winning collaborative campaigns while building communications capacity.

Rapid Response Grants

Rabbis for Human Rights – North America
$4,000

To support Rabbis for Human Rights – North America's placement of ads that promote a message of tolerance and human rights in Washington, D.C.'s metro system in response to anti-Muslim ads placed by a hate organization.

ReThink Media
$30,000

To support ReThink Media to increase the strategic communications support available to the national security and human rights field during the first 100 days of President Obama's second term in anticipation of important opportunities for media work and collaborative communications responses.

Security & Rights Action Fund Total: $120,000

Security & Rights Action Fund Grants

ReThink Media Advocacy
$100,000

To support ReThink Media Advocacy's provision of a centralized set of tools, resources and services (including campaign support) to national security and human rights organizations with the goal of providing communications support for legislative efforts, building communications capacity and collaborative messaging opportunities.

Rights Working Group
$20,000

To support Rights Working Group's (RWG) effort to hold an Advocacy Day in support of the End Racial Profiling Act.